

COMPUTER HARDWARE

Motherboard - includes CPU, memory chips, inputs and outputs

Central Processing Unit (CPU) - The “brain” that processes all information

Random Access Memory (RAM) - The computer’s temporary memory

Graphics Processing Unit (GPU) - also known as the “graphics card”

Hard Drive - Storage for files, folders, and programs

Power Supply Unit (PSU) - Takes electricity from the wall

Case - box for holding all of the above

Monitor - used to display the operating system, software, or websites

Keyboard - used for inputting text

Mouse - used as a selection tool